Dear Peggy,

9.17.90

Dr. Leonard Latkovski thinks he can get the translation done for you. If I did not tell you, he is a Latvian who teaches history at local Hood College. We spoke about it briefly last evening at a party, then were interrupted, and when I looked for him to see if he could estimate what would be asked for the work he'd gone.

His father is still alive and does translations. He says his father can do it if the writing is clear and consistent. Otherwise it will require more time and he may be too busy with other commitments if it takes long.

I asked if he could think of anyone else if his father is too busy and he said he thinks he can get it done.

My thought, with which he agreed, was that it might be best if you were to send him all the pages you want translated so the clarity, etc., is known immediately, if this meets with your approval.

He might not have been able to make a time and cost estimate anyway.

You can address him at just Hood College, Frederick, Md, 21701 or at his home, 205 Upper College Terrace, same zip.

With this as an augury I'll have to go out a bit more!

First time I've been to a cookout for so long I can't remember. This is because I can't stand other than momentarily. I knew I'd not have to yesterday so we went.

I hope it works out for you.

Good luck!

Harold
